THEATRE

TUGHLAQ

A thirteen-scene play about the turbulent rule of Mohammad Bin Tughlaq. This seems on the outlook as a historical play, but is appropriate to the contemporary politics of any era, especially in the current global scenario. The play explores the series of events that led to the downfall of one of the most fascinating kings to occupy the throne in Delhi. The play outlines his clever plots to eliminate his opponents and ends with scenes of utter chaos in the kingdom, and Tughlaq being left alone, after having been abandoned by those who survived him.

When: October 18,
Where: Ranga Shankara, JP Nagar

WHATEVER YOU SAY

A funny and an honest play about a couple, X and Y, who one day discover that they have run out of conversation. What do two people who have nothing left to say, say to each other? As X and Y laugh and bicker and try to rediscover the meaning in their meaningless existence, Z enters. Z is the omni present 'thought-collector', who collects thoughts nobody wants. As Z develops burnout and starts setting thoughts free, what is said and what is left unsaid is no longer clear.

When: October 18 and 19,
Where: Jagriti Theatre, Whitefield
